

Blood Twig Dogwood

(Cornus sanguinea)

This multi-stemmed shrub is a relative of the native Dogwood tree. It is adorned with white flowers in early summer. Blood Twig Dogwood grows 6-15 feet tall in sun to part shade, and performs well in a range of soil conditions, including damp spots. Especially good for mass plantings, the red hued stems are beautiful against a backdrop of winter snow.